CALCINE CINDERS.

By Harry C. Simmons.
Anaconda, Mont.—The strike has been settled as far as the mines are concerned, and the only obstacle remaining is the agreement between the Metal Trades Council and the A. M. C. Co. A wage scale has been presented to the union for acceptance or rejection, which includes all craftsmen and helpers; also a weekly payday. Time and one-half for overtime and double time for such holidays as Independence Day, Labor Day and Christmas. As copper advances in value, a 25 per cent raise on the month has been included in the agreement. A workman that receives the minimum wage of $4.00 a day while copper is at 27 cents per pound gets 25 per cent more on the next month should the price advance to 29 cents. This agreement Mr. C. F. McKelley, vice president, stated was final. Mrs. C. Carter and Mr. Edmund Shears were married last Wednesday evening. The happy couple are at home to their friends, 112 Hickory street. Congratulations are in order. Invitations are out for a shirtwaist dance party the 31st. Arthur McGee, Henry Williams, Jr., committee of arrangements. Prof. Paul Ross's orchestra, leader. A good time for all. Mrs. Clyde Workoff, the foster daughter of Mr. Frank Walker, Sr., arrived from Des Moines, Ia., and expects to make a summer's visit. Mrs. Workoff is a graduate of Quindaro. Supreme Deputy J. H. Hilliard of Helena, Mont., set up the Benevolent Lodge, K. of P., last Wednesday evening, with sixteen braves. Another initiation takes place the last of the month. Henry Williams, Sr., C. C. Uncle Sam called eleven of our race for service on the first ballot. The boys all feel jubilant over the prospect; some, of course, expect to distinguish themselves by acts of heroism. Its a great life, if you don't weaken, boys. The piano recital by Miss Lena James Douglass, composer and pianist, Tuesday evening, July 31, at Odd Fellows' hall will be grand. Miss Douglass is the race's foremost composer and poet graduate of the Chicago Musical College. Come and hear her. Admission 50 cents. Mr. F. A. Yarnar and Mr. John Edmonds of Butte made Anaconda a short visit between trains. Mr. Yarnar has just returned from a two weeks' trip in Wyoming. While at Thermopolis Springs he saw some of the most chronic cases of disordered blood cured. He states the wonderful curative powers of these waters are great.

The series of meetings under the direction of Rev. A. F. Bray, evangelist, is in progress at the A. M. E. Church this week, and will begin at the Mt. Zion Baptist Church next Sunday for a week. Rev. Bray is quite a speaker, and we anticipate much spiritual success in his meetings. Mrs. Mame Cowan is confined with serious illness. Mrs. J. W. A public reception was given at night, at which time a program was carried out and a social mingling of friends made acquaintances with each other. About 150 delegates and visitors were present and the session, as I heard, was very cordial and successfully carried out. Visitors all speak well of the cordiality shown by Amaranth Chapter of Lincoln. Several distinguished visitors attended. Among them were G. M. W. W. Fields of Cameron, Mo., Grand Secretary; George W. K. Love of Kansas City, Mo., and Mrs. Victoria Clay Haley of St. Louis, Mo. Card of Thanks—I wish to thank the many friends for their kind sympathy shown in my recent bereavement in the death of my wife and baby. I sincerely from my heart appreciate the kindness shown by all. I remain your servant, J. F. Smith, janitor of Little Building. Lebanon Lodge has a class of eight candidates to be initiated next week. Mr. Paul L. Moore will represent Lebanon Lodge No. 126 at Grand Lodge at Jefferson City, August 8-11, 1917.
